How did the Fund perform during the reporting period?

The Moerus Worldwide Value Fund (the "Fund") returned +10.27% (net of fees) for the Institutional Class during the six months ended May 31, 2025. By comparison, the MSCI All Country World Index ("MSCI ACWI") returned +2.83% (net), while the MSCI All Country World ex USA Index ("MSCI ACWI ex USA") returned +11.81% (net). In relative terms, international equities significantly outperformed U.S. equities (as evidenced by the MSCI ACWI ex USA's outperformance of the MSCI ACWI) as U.S. stocks lagged amid investor concerns regarding ongoing tariff negotiations and their potential implications. With respect to the Fund's strategy, the market was generally supportive of the Fund's relative performance as compared to the heavily U.S.-weighted MSCI ACWI, though not as compared to the MSCI ACWI ex USA, which excludes the U.S. The Fund's value-conscious, opportunistic, and flexible approach typically results in a portfolio of bottom-up investments that tends to have high active share and low overlap with broader market indices. During the six months ended May 31, 2025, the Fund's strong absolute performance and meaningful relative outperformance of the MSCI ACWI was driven by significant individual contributors to performance that included (in order of magnitude): Canadian holding company Dundee Corporation; Italian bank UniCredit S.p.A.; financial services provider Hong Kong Exchanges & Clearing Ltd.; Canadian precious metals streamer Wheaton Precious Metals Corporation; and Brazilian bank Banco Bradesco S.A. On the negative side, the most significant detractors from the Fund's absolute performance during the period included: U.S. financial services provider Jefferies Financial Group, Inc.; U.S. luggage company Samsonite Group S.A.; Canadian miner Teck Resources Ltd.; U.S. offshore energy services provider Tidewater, Inc.; and Brazilian beauty products retailer Natura & Company Holding S.A.
